

Co-funded by the European Union

International workshop

Diagnosing conflict.

Perspectives from the Narrative Approach,
Reconciliation Studies,
and Critical Theory.

DATES: March 26, 2026: 9:00–18:00

LOCATION: Carl-Zeiß-Str. 3, Seminarraum 308, Jena

- Speakers:
- Ferrari, Francesco (FSU/JCRS, Jena)
 - Gros, Alexis (FSU, Jena)
 - Leiner, Martin (FSU/JCRS, Jena)
 - Nell, Charlotte (FSU, Jena)
 - Nuccilli, Daniele (Charles University Prague)
 - Prosdocimo, Marlene (University of Turin)

Organisators: Alexis Gros, Francesco Ferrari, Daniele Nuccilli
Nuccilli.Daniele@ff.cuni.cz.

CHARLES UNIVERSITY
IN PRAGUE

FRIEDRICH-SCHILLER-UNIVERSITÄT
JENA

International Workshop

Diagnosing Conflict: Perspectives from the Narrative Approach, Reconciliation Studies, and Critical Theory

Dates: March 26, 2026

Location: Friedrich-Schiller-Universität, Carl-Zeiß-Str. 3, Seminarraum 308, Jena

9:15 – 9:30

Welcome and Introduction

9:30 – 10:15

Marlene Prosdocimo

Streit, πόλεμος, Zwiespalt: At which level(s) does the Heideggerian “conflict” occur?

10:30 – 11:15

Daniele Nuccilli

Political narrative and imperialist legitimization of conflict

11:15 – 11:45

Coffee Break

11:45 – 12:30

Martin Leiner

Ways of freezing and unfreezing social conflicts without and within the project of reconciliation.

12:30-14:00

Lunch Break

14:15 – 15:00

Francesco Ferrari

The Vulnerable Agent: On the Role of Emotions in Reconciliation

Co-funded by the European Union

CHARLES UNIVERSITY
IN PRAGUE

FRIEDRICH-SCHILLER-UNIVERSITÄT
JENA

15:15 – 16:00

Charlotte Nell

When a 'We' Conceals Conflict: Subtle and Latent Conflicts in We-Relationships

16:15 – 16:45

Coffee Break

16:45 – 17:30

Alexis Gros

The Struggle for Resonance: On the Motivational Sources of Environmental Conflicts

17:30-17:45

Concluding Discussion

Reflections and wrap-up.

Co-funded by the European Union

